Immerse in Pure Luxury at Grenada's Lavish Lodgings

With the addition of a recently-branded Relais & Châteaux and a new Leading Hotels of the World to open in 2018, the expansion of Grenada's luxury accommodation profile seeks to attract travelers looking for comfort and indulgence

ST. GEORGE'S, GRENADA W.I. – December 11, 2017 – All of the finest things in life come together when staying at one of Grenada's luxurious accommodations. From total privacy and excellent service to gourmet dining and pure wellness, these hotels go above and beyond to ensure an unforgettable stay. As they sit on some of the best beaches in the Caribbean, the hotels provide visitors with the opportunity to lounge on powdery white sand, take a dip in the refreshing clear waters or take delightful strolls along the shore. Beyond the hotels' boundaries is a wealth of opportunities to explore the island, from the world's first Underwater Sculpture Park located just below the island's crystal clear waters, the finest cocoa and spice-infused chocolate available at four chocolate factories to more than 15 refreshing waterfalls amid the lush rainforest and tempting sulfur springs with revitalizing properties. Below is a sample list of some of the unique boutique hotels offering Pure Luxury accommodations.

Spice Island Beach Resort

The first and only AAA Five-Diamond resort in Grenada and a member of the Small Luxury Hotels of the World collection, Spice Island Beach Resort is a luxurious boutique property that takes the all-inclusive resort experience to the highest level. Many of the suites feature their own pool and outdoor terraces with complete privacy where couples can take their breakfast and feel the warm ocean breeze. All 64 elegantly-appointed accommodations feature luxurious Frette linen, Molton Brown amenities, aromatherapy and a well-stocked mini bar. Set along the beachfront are the resort's restaurants, Oliver's and Sea and Surf Terrace & Bar featuring authentic local specialties and international favorites crafted to perfection. The resort's full-service spa, Janissa's Spa, is a true sanctuary that taps the restorative powers of local herbs and spices to help relax and rejuvenate. Adding to its therapeutic offerings, the hotel underwent a recent resort-wide renovation that included the unveiling of a Yoga pavilion overlooking the idyllic Grand Anse Beach meant to compliment the range of wellness options available to guests. Calabash Luxury Boutique Hotel

The fifth hotel in the Caribbean to receive the prestigious Relais & Châteaux honor, Calabash Luxury Boutique Hotel presents 30 spacious suites and 5 estate homes delicately arranged around eight acres of Eden-like gardens facing the white sands of L'anse Aux Epines beach. It is proudly home to two of the best restaurants in Grenada, Rhodes Restaurant and The Beach Club, both with first class service and locally-sourced ingredients. Guests enjoy the hotel's Spa at Calabash which offers holistic treatments, restorative yoga and an overall calming environment designed to empower guests in mind, body and spirit. The family-owned hotel combines five star service and luxury within a relaxed and intimate environment to create the ultimate Caribbean escape. For more information, visit <http://calabashhotel.com/>.

Silversands Grenada

The newest jewel of high-end accommodations in Grenada opening in November 2018 on the world-famous Grand Anse Beach, Silversands will feature 43 suites and nine residential villas for purchase dotted along the beach and amid the hillside above. It lays claim to a 100m swimming pool, the longest in the Caribbean, fit for swimming laps or simply bathing and looking on at its infinity edges. Guests and villa owners will have access to the Silversands Spa offering locally-inspired treatments, a beach club with a resident DJ delivering swanky tunes and two restaurants serving globally-inspired cuisine. Silversands is now a part of the Leading Hotels of the World, a global curated collection of more than 375 luxury hotels and resorts in more than 75 countries. Stand-alone Villas

For a vacation completely secluded from other travelers, Grenada's luxury villas are the ideal option. Sprinkled around the island in the mountains, by the beach, and on hilltops, each villa meets the needs of any discerning traveler with a desire for a home away from home. Companies connect travelers to villas that meet any requirement from the exact number of rooms needed to the best location for entertainment and activities. Ultra-privacy can be had at the exclusive Calivigny Island off Grenada's coast where guests have a choice between two large villas and three beachfront cottages for up to 50 guests in total. The private island has a heated fresh water pool, swim-up bar, giant portable movie screen with hi-definition projector, tennis court, jogging paths, and every water toy the mind can dream. Butler and maid service is included with a private chef and 24-hour staff availability. Kimpton Kawana Bay Resort

Adding to Grenada's continuous expansion of luxury accommodations, Kimpton Kawana Bay is expected to open in October 2019. The hillside retreat will be nestled between lush vegetation and the world-renowned Grand Anse Beach where guests can enjoy an infinity pool, a chef-driven restaurant, a lounge and beach bar, fitness center, spa and water sports facilities. The 146-key resort will be comprised of 101 luxury studio rooms, 45 suites (with some featuring private pools overlooking the beach), and 12 additional penthouse apartments available for purchase.
