Sirenis Hotels & Resorts Announces Launch of Grand Sirenis Punta Cana

All-inclusive Caribbean resort set to re-open mid-December after $30M renovation

MIAMI, Fla. – June 26, 2018 – Sirenis Hotels and Resorts announced that its Sirenis Punta Cana Resort Casino & Aquagames in the Dominican Republic is set to rebrand as Grand Sirenis Punta Cana Resort, following completion of a $30M renovation. Just in time for the winter holiday break, the resort will re-open mid-December 2018, welcoming guests to experience the newly transformed and improved hotel offerings.

“In order to stay relevant, it is very important to provide our guests with top-quality product and service and we are very excited to introduce the new and enhanced Grand Sirenis Punta Cana Resort,” commented Sonia Nuñez. “With its improved amenities, the resort now offers guests an even more enjoyable experience and we’re thrilled to be able to create unforgettable memories at our stand-out all-inclusive property.”

As the latest addition to the Grand Sirenis brand, the family-friendly, 5-star resort has undergone a comprehensive makeover that includes a complete revamp of the guestrooms with a fresh and avant-garde design; refreshments to the main buffet-restaurants, lobby and common areas; the addition of new themed restaurants and children’s club as well as refreshments to the Aquagames Waterpark.

Situated on one of the most beautiful coconut groves in Punta Cana, the 816-rooms beachfront resort is designed to keep the entire family entertained. Featuring a casino where adults can test their luck; two-pools with beach-style access; a mini driving range; motorized and non-motorized watersports; El Bonche nightclub lounge; spa; and the resort’s main attraction, the Aquagames waterpark developed to bring out the kid in everyone, Grand Sirenis Punta Cana Resort offers endless possibilities for guests to create memorable experiences.
