ACTIVITIES FACT SHEET

Guests at The Venetian on Grace Bay can enjoy a wide array of activities that will please virtually every type of traveler. Water-based sports include boating, deep sea fishing, wind surfing and snorkeling. Those preferring to remain on land can enjoy golfing on world-class greens, exploring the island's caves and horseback riding. The property arranges excursions so guests can have the opportunity to experience everything the island has to offer.

Off-site water sports: Each year thousands of tourists visit the Turks and Caicos for snorkeling and diving. Best renowned for its spectacular 12-mile beach and waters with exceptional visibility, the Turks and Caicos Islands are surrounded by miles of coral reef that are home to a wide variety of marine life. Parasailing provides a spectacular view of both the coral reefs and Provo.

Bone Fishing The exciting sport of bone fishing is performed by spin casting or with a fly rod. The silvery bonefish lives in the shallow flats near mangroves. The practice of baiting hooks with conch and casting lines along the banks of the south shore is known as Bottom Fishing. This is an especially fun experience for kids where the common catch includes snapper, grouper, yellowfin and parrotfish.

Golf The Venetian is located within easy walking distance to Provo's only golf course ---the Provo Golf & Country Club, designed by Karl Litten, Consistently voted one of the best golf courses in the Caribbean, the 18-hole links are beautifully maintained and are a luxurious tropical oasis with a magnificent blend of lush greens and fairways.

Horseback Riding Horseback riding on the beach is an experience not to be missed during your visit to the Turks & Caicos. With riding times between 9:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. daily, Provo Ponies provides animals for all skill levels and will conclude the equestrian experience with a ride along Long Bay Beach.

Conch Farm The world's only conch farm highlights the life of the local mollusk throughout its tour. Each conch is more than seven years old and will emerge from its shell for human contact. The conch farm tour is a unique experience, especially for children and naturalists. It ends with the farm's featured entertainers, Sally and Jerry.

No Break in Communication at The Venetian on Grace Bay Turks & Caicos Resort Provides Guests with Cell Phones Upon Arrival

Providenciales, Turks and Caicos – The Venetian on Grace Bay, a luxury condo hotel in the Turks & Caicos provides owners and guests with cell phones upon arrival at their vacation destination. This convenient service is an innovative approach to communication which will save money and avoid exorbitant land line charges. What's more, a cell phone allows guests the convenience of making calls home or to the office from anywhere on the island.

In addition to their room key, guests and owners checking in at The Venetian will receive a complimentary cell phone including $10 worth of free minutes. Subsequent minutes can be purchased through the concierge at an additional charge. The cell phones come with chargers and are pre-programmed with numbers for key contacts on the island including the hotel front desk, taxi drivers and emergency services.

If the phone is inadvertently left in a restaurant or store, The Venetian's logo appears on each phone, thus identifying it as The Venetian's property and enabling an easier return to the resort. In addition, all the phones are on a closed user group which allows calls to other rooms or anywhere on the resort for free.

Guests and owners at The Venetian on Grace Bay can use their cell phones as if they were their own. Each phone has a direct number that can be given to friends and family in order to stay in touch and cell phone service means that calls are not relayed through a switchboard. Important calls can be taken anywhere on the island and guests are not tied down to the suite while everyone else is enjoying the beach.

The Venetian on Grace Bay in Turks & Caicos is located just 15 minutes from Providenciales International Airport.
